I sit alone in the rain and my mind is dreaming
I'm still missing you
Many days have gone by but I can't stop this feeling
Can't stop loving you

Seems like yesterday
When you walked away
I remember begging you to stay
To let my feelings show
I must always know
I should never let you go

Your love is like rain on the hot light of summer
Your touch will make my heart beat like a drummer
Don't run away
I need you to stay
Only with you I have friend to fly higher

I sit alone in my room and my heart is crying
Over and over again I remember you're smiling
I remember you

Seems like yesterday
When you walked away
I remember begging you to stay
To let my feelings show
I must always know
I should never let you go

Your love is like rain on the hot light of summer
Your touch will make my heart beat like a drummer
Don't run away
I need you to stay
Only with you I have friend to fly higher

Seems like yesterday
When you walked away
I remember begging you to stay
To let my feelings show
I must always know
I should never let you go

Your love is like rain on the hot light of summer
Your touch will make my heart beat like a drummer
Don't run away
I need you to stay
Only with you I have friend to fly higher

Only with you I have friend to fly higher
