What if I told you
You made me believe
That you were an angel
But I was deceived
You're only human
Flesh & bones
Another misfortune
Another sharp stone
That's stuck in my shoe
And now I am wondering
Why I wrote this song for you

What if I told you
That you weren't perfect
For me
That I was just playing
And you were my flavor of the week
Would you believe me
Or would you know
That I loved you
Yeah would you know
That I loved you

What if I told you
That you were an angel
And I am only human
Wondering why I wrote this song for you
