Frat boys gone to dogs
Brawling and sparring
Blue girl, dance for me
The empty floor and I think

I love your baby fat
Your crooked nose is where it's at

And I assess the essence of the mess
The perfect hourglass of my loneliness, yes
And I don't care to count my chances
I just want the girl in the blue dress to keep on dancing

What is this happiness?
It was not ever thus

I will prevail for you
Behind the mic I'm burning too

And yeah, I'm just a zip code man
I got my house and I'll stay in if I can
But I don't care to keep my fences
I just want the girl in the blue dress to keep on dancing

I assess the essence of the mess
The perfect hourglass of my happiness, yes
And I don't care to count my chances
I just want the girl in the blue dress
I just want the girl in the blue dress
I just want the girl in the blue dress to keep on dancing
To keep on dancing, to keep on dancing, to keep on dancing
