I'll keep on rising up
Well I'll keep on rising up
Everyday, I'm rising up (x2)

Do you, want to get hurt?
Need to get ditched
Do you need to get let down?
Need some, one to boot you
Need to get dropped
Just to fool your true self out

I'll keep on rising up
Well I'll keep on rising up
Everyday, I'm rising up (x2)

You're like, trying to sleep off
A cocaine binge
In the weekday morning bed.
Chest is, like a freight train
But you're so tired
And the dread it looms ahead.

I threw my weight into the curves you threw at me.
I ripped the rules up
Said I love you on day three

I'll keep on rising up
Well I'll keep on rising up
Everyday, I'm rising up (x6)
