shining like the rainbow in the sky like the stars just coming out at night shin so bright flying like an angel so in high like a summerwind on the summernight how was so many times since secure did I really know which way I had to go I fall so bad and my life is not the same just everything around me seems to be cold my friends were leaving me for gold I was lost somehow but then I looked into your eyes and they were

telling me everything's allright flying like a angel so in high like a summerwind on the summernight
fly so high
this is how you make me feel deep down inside you gave me trust and you kept me wrong show me the way then I was wrong now that I know the way I'll keep going on and on my hole live has change so much since you crossed my way since I felt your love you're always there just like having at the bar

telling me everything's alright flying like an angel so in high

sometimes I feel so sad asking myself where I was wrong by me are you so bad thinking my older things that you've done will making me smile in every time I can't get you out of my mind
