And if I ever fall in love again
I'll try to let my heart be free
'Cause I know how it feels to be alone
Still trapped in old memories

And if I ever fall in love again
I'll search to find a love that's true
I need a lover who will share my life
And help make my love renewed

Na na na, la la la
I'm not lost I've been here before
But everything has changed
No need to cry just dry my eyes
And let my heart show me the way

Send me someone to love
And I'll be on my way
'Cause I need someone to love
Forever and always

And if I ever love again
I know you'll be my lover and my friend
And if I ever hold you in my arms
No nothing could tear us apart

And if I ever wanna hear you say
Darlin' I love you to me everyday
The only way to know our love is right
It must pass the test of time

Na na na, la la la la
I'm not lost I've been here before
But everything has changed
(Ooh)
No need to cry just dry my eyes
And let my heart show me the way

Send me someone to love
And I'll be on my way
'Cause I need someone to love
Forever and always

Na na na, la la la
I'm not lost I've been here before
But everything has changed
(Ooo ooh)
No need to cry just dry my eyes
And let my heart show me the way

Send me someone to love
And I'll be on my way
'Cause I need someone to love
Forever and always
And if I ever fall in love
