Sweet lovely lady be good
Oh, lady be good to me

Way back, take a look, she would cook
When they were stompin' at the Savoy
She would blow and they would dance, don't you know
It was an uptown kind a show

Cool notes and melodies, harmonies
She sang the song of the universe
She can make a joyful noise up to heaven
And call the angels down to the earth

From jazz to swing, to be-bop
She kept the spirit alive
For bo, duke, dizzy, and miles
She spoke her mind
She's ellamental to the art
She spoke her mind
She's ellamental to the art

Too hot, until the dawn she sang on
When joints were jumpin' and jive was in Bodies movin' back and forth to the rhythm
Ever since Ella first did her thing

From jazz to swing to be-bop
She brought emotions and moves
She kept the spirit alive
She spoke her mind
She's ellamental to the art
She spoke her mind
She's ellamental to the art

From jazz to swing to be-bop
She brought emotions and moves
She kept the spirit alive
She spoke her mind
She's ellamental to the art
She spoke her mind
She's ellamental to the art

Act like ya know, oh
Was it the smooth tones that was so much like butter
Oh ella was singin' just like no other singer
Cause you know I be the funky bringer of the new style
Because I be the wild child

Listenin' to hip-hop, listening to be-bop and jazz
Ella made you move that ass
Sensation for the people, inspiration for the sisters and the brothers
Smooth jazz tones for the midnight lovers
Savoy was the spot for shakin' on your rump
And Ella made it hoppin'
Got the joint jumpin', remembering you 'til the dawn
Because Ella your memory goes on

She spoke her mind
(She spoke her mind)
Yeah, it just don't stop
The memory goes on and on, 'cause it just don't stop

She spoke her mind
She's ellamental to the art
She spoke her mind
She's ellamental to the art
She's ellamental

She spoke her mind
She spoke her mind
She's ellamental
She spoke her mind
She's ellamental to the art
She's ellamental to the art
