I got to get what's mine, the thin red line
I cross it daily

Time chose a side, but it's not mine
It makes me crazy

Whatever, I don't know
I haven't thought so much about it
Maybe I lost control
No one can prove me wrong

Everyone's trying to break me (but I won't give up)
Everything seems to be fading (but I won't give up)
Taking me down won't be easy
You can try anything but I won't give up

Now that we are face to face
Tell me what it takes
To start all over

Whatever, I don't know
I haven't thought so much about it
Maybe I lost control
No one can prove me wrong

Everyone's trying to break me (but I won't give up)
Everything seems to be fading (but I won't give up)
Taking me down won't be easy
You can try anything but I won't give up
