"Dying To Live"

Visit "Dying To Live" on MotoLyrics.com

All of my time, wasted
What came before, all gone
What I stand for, changes
I let it go, move on

In these world nobody knows which side they're on
Give the money all away
Still hell to pay

I'm a one-way ticket (I'm dying to live)
You killed the last to forget and forgive (I'm dying to live)
Tell me can you dig it
Every day now I'm dying to live
I'm dying to live

Tunnel vision, one goal
My redemption, your fall
In this world nobody knows their right from wrong
A bible and a shotgun
Now I'm glad I got one
