Wait, don't go away,
lisen, just play the game, wait, open up the door, you know there's nothing you can lose, anyway everyone makes mistakes, it's not like you can choose, just go ahead an do it, can't you see?,
or is it only me?

Is there anything i believe for real?
Is there anything i believe for real?
I'm going around again,
you said you think i've lost the way,
i'm going around again,
going around again
before it gets too late and if you think it's all we're saying,
i'm going around again,
going around again

I got a lot to say, but now i lost the track, don't know where to start, are you are you sure of what you are doing? do you think is worth to do it? no matter how long it takes, everything is going to change

If everything i believe is for real,
If everything i believe is for real,
I'm going around again,
you said you think i've lost the way,
i'm going around again,
and if you think it's all we're saying,
i'm going around again,
going around again

I'm leaving all behind,

i'm going to find the reasons why,
i'm going around again,

I'm leaving all behind,
i'm going to find the reasons why,
i'm going around again,
