Well I just embarrassed myself in this state
I'll think I'll just
Meditate on how she radiates
Look how she lights the room

Wall to Wall
Top to Bottom
Up the staircase
Round the corner
Go and get her
If you want her
They say

They don't know
It's so damn easy to say
But they ain't sittin' here alone

Now I'm just sittin' here
And thinkin' how cool it'd be to
Hold her (yea)

Courage starts to sneak up
I'd better speak up, today

Oo, I love the way she walks away
Oh I love the way she walks away
Oo, I love the way she walks away
Oh I love the way she walks away

She disappears into the hall
With my friend Paul

And that's that I guess
She emerges a half an hour later
Adjusting her dress
And Paul takes a seat down next to me
Tells me about his night of ecstasy
And all I can say
Is nothing at all

Cause he don't know

So damn easy to say
But he ain't sittin' here alone

Now I'm just sittin' here
And thinkin' how cool it'd be to
Hold her (yea)

Courage starts to sneak up
I'd better speak up, today

Oo, I love the way she walks away
Oh I love the way she walks away
Oo, I love the way she walks away
Oh I love the way she walks away

I'm spell-binded
By the way she moves
And kid,
Nu-uh you take my breath away baby
Just by the way she walks away

They don't know

Now I'm just sittin' here

Courage starts to sneak up

Oo, I love the way she walks away
Oo, I love the way she walks away
Walks away

Oh I love the way she Oh and I love the way she
And I love the way she
