[Vast Aire] I am the weirdest; I am the norm I am the vortex; the Eye of the Storm I was here before man was scorned I was here before man was torn If I could finish the rhyme I would run around in space and wrap up time And dwell the Neturei Even if you got led I can see thru you The path is spiritual insight Then I cry out like Isyss then take flight And at night I'm so in tuned I might act stupid if I look at the moon I'm like a Dog-faced baboon I'll put your heart in a scale with the feather of Mach And I don't gotta guess that I'm hot And you don't gotta guess that I rock the spot (Hook) So become the hawk, become the kite One becomes the speech, the other the sight I use to outdo cats like you on my lunch period Then converse with the burning bush about a period Yo become the speed, become the mic One will run while the other's in flight I use to outdo cats like you on my lunch period Then converse with the burning bush about a period [Vast Aire] The understanding of wisdom is silence But the true essence of God is balance You can get lost like Alice In a Wonderland puffing on a chalice LXG - we cause malice When I grab comics I get a callus You was pleasing her I doubt it This is why she's praising the phallus I knew she was good I ain't know she was that bad I died and she stood there and fought with a Nile crab When I speak I'm dope like opium Ya arms are too short to touch the podium So just listen to me sing I'm like Michael and you're the horse with waxed wings I'm loving her, she's my Queen The Supreme Team - I'm her God King (Hook) 2x
