I give you good advice, you just ignore
The truth at any price is more than you can afford
But when you're not doing too well
I'll be here, here for you still
A little bit longer

[Chorus:]
Brokenhearted
Won't you come back to me?
You're so brokenhearted
I'll fix yours for free
Brokenhearted
Brokenhearted
Won't you come back to me?

Life gives us both a chance
An equal vote
And it's just the circumstance if it all goes up in smoke
When all the answers you're trying to find
They don't come easy, there's no peace of mind
Somebody's there for you

[Chorus]

They don't come easy, there's no peace of mind
Somebody's there for you

[Chorus]

I give you good advice, you just ignore
The truth at any price is more than you can afford
