Looking through the empty faces closing in around Unfamiliar crowded faces, the twilight underground
Why, why, why, when I close my eyes
Why, why, why, tell me
Caught up in a strange sensation of hell and heaven
Wall to wall anticipation, this time is forever
Why, why, why, when I close my eyes, tell me
Why, why, why, it's you I visualize

On the edge of the night, the shadows calling in the corner of your eyes
All the love unite will dance around you in a dream
At the end of the night, you'll find me waiting like a statue in the rain
I'll never love again the way that we will then together

I try so hard to get you out of my head
I'm giving up, I can't forget you, nothing left to say
Why, why, why, when I close my eyes, tell me
Why, why, why, it's you I visualize

On the edge of the night, the shadows calling in the corner of your eyes
All the love unite will dance around you in a dream
At the end of the night, you'll find me waiting like a
statue in the rain
I'll never love again

It's you I visualize

On the edge of the night, the shadows calling from the corner of your eyes
All the love unite will dance around you in a dream
At the end of the night, you'll find me waiting like a
statue in the rain
I'll never love again

On the edge of the night
