Hundreds of thousand of warriors march Lies-hiding promises of great treasures
(Chorus)

Death is riding at their side and grinding their cold steel He's covering the truth

This is Blood Brothers' Fight
Just one blow and the fight is begun
They don't understand the blood they spill is just the same

(Chorus)

They are blinded by a lie
They don't know even why so many men must die
This is Blood Brothers' Fight
Oh father, fighting once again but this time our swords are crossed

We are face to face I've learned that Victory is much stronger than blood ties
So now one of us must die!

(guitar solo)

They don't understand the blood they spill is just the same They don't know why so many men are meant to die

This is the great Blood Brothers' Fight
(guitar solo)

Hundreds of thousands of warriors have died Darkness is falling on the battle ground
No one is left alive today to say "never again"
to spread around the tale
The Tale of Blood Brothers' Fight
