I can't sleep
Cause the caffeine buzz
Is keeping me awake
Its 5 in the morning
Love do you believe in me?

I'll take all the bitter pills that
Make this low feel high
I'll chase all the perfumed dreams that get us through the night

I've found that i'm hearing voices
The whole world calls
This is where i am
Now i'm hearing voices the whole world calls again

There are times
When i feel i'm falling
Out of my own skin
Through the dust that
Clings to every thought that tries to live

I've found that i'm hearing voices
The whole world calls
This is where i am
Now i'm hearing voices

Start spreading the word
I'm coming down
Cause i need to feel a part of this
Start spreading the word cause i'm flying again again
And i need to feel a part of you

I swing i'm like an acrobat
I'm hanging from the stars
Will you know the little things
About me when i'm gone

And i stare at a billion stars
From the gutter i know this is where i am
Now i'm hearing voices

Start spreading the word
I'm coming down
Cause i need to feel a part of this
Start spreading the word cause i'm flying again
And i need to feel a part
