You, are the faith that kills the fear
Of being real -yeah this is real
Now for the first time, i'm finally alive

You, take me first inside your hands
You squeeze, i understand
But i get lost in the politics of love

You, still surprise me everyday
You blanket me with grace
You clear the static and you get me reconnected

You, put your fingers in my hair
You broke into my head
The sacrifice so you could feel like i do

[Chorus]
You know, that it's easier alone
You know, that it's easier alone
But i can't be me without you

You, see the days swallow me whole
You see me bang my head off walls
Put your face on mine and say, "let it be"

You said if everyone gets lost,
You pressed your mouth against my lips
You sang a song but there's no strategy with your melodie love

[Chorus]

You, are the faith that kills the fear
Of being real -yeah this is real
Now for the first time, i have arrived.

[Chorus]

You know
