Did you know that I loved you that day
We were too young
The music straining in my ears
With my hopes, with my fears
And my tears when I found that you had gone

Do you remember those days
Me and you on the hill playing games
One moment crimson pirates
The next we were
Violets on the wind

Do you remember we were angels in disguise
Living through those days so strong
But you've got to move along, move along
You've got to move along
