Build me a river within my thoughts
Build me a boat I can put my songs in
Build me a river within my thoughts
Won't you build me a boat I can put my songs in Oh yeah and send them to him

He was the singer for me, don't you know it
Found love in the strength of his song
When I'm weary and I know that he's gone
I just drink, drink deep
Drink the sweet wine of his song

Oh drink!

He was the singer for me, don't you know it
Found love in the strength of his song
When I'm weary and I know that he's gone
I just drink, drink deep
Drink the sweet wine of his song

Oh yeah!
