This is our kin,
Our oath, and our honor
Within my chest beats
The heart of a lion
Winter is coming soon

The white wall

We are the left behind
The lost who never glance behind
For everything we need is in our minds

We save the broken ones
The helpless left with no defense
Ones left standing in the dust and grime

A virus

Stay true to yourself,
So much value in that line

A virus

Stay true to yourself,
So much value in that line

Race to the top
There we can see
We can see to no measure

Look for your power
Everlasting, raging inside
Look for your power
Master and conquer
Till you expire.

Look for your power
Everlasting, raging inside
Look for your power
Master and conquer
Till you expire.
