Is anyone alive?
Is anyone here?
Ladies and gentlemen,
The freaks are out.

You're a trust fund girl
And you're living in a young man's righteous world.
Time to come on over
Got a story to show
You're living in a fairytale you don't even know
He treats you like a candygirl for all of us to see
But you need to know

Don't panic
He's under surveillance
He's manic
He'll never prevail

He cheats on the beats
Like a puppet show
How much is your best porno?

You're a trust fund girl
And you're living in a young man's righteous world
You're a trust fund girl
And it's obvious you're just his creditor
(X2)

Follow his lead
Go down, and down, and down.
You go
To all the girls
Surround, surround, surround,
Your home.

Word's getting out
He's gone spreading the news
It's time to put an end to all this wretched abuse
All you ever wanted was to love and be loved
To choose
To lose

Don't panic
He's under surveillance
He's manic
To no avail

He cheats on the beats
And I'm fairly certain he steals
Along till you're the accused.

You're a trust fund girl
And you're living in a young man's righteous world
You're a trust fund girl
And it's obvious you're just his creditor
(X2)

Will he leave you blind?
Will he leave you blind?
On his virtue
All in spite of you

Don't panic
He's under surveillance
He's manic
He'll never prevail

He cheats and defeats
Like a puppet show
How much is your best porno?

You're a trust fund girl
And you're living in a young man's righteous world
You're a trust fund girl
And it's obvious you're just his creditor
(X2)
