Take my hand and we'll be one
You'll belong to the hellion
It's a chance in a million
Don't be scared on our way down

Black your tears dry on me

Friend or foe or liar
Fire - In hell fire - Fire

Hear my tale and walk with me
Answer not to oblivion
Ask your stars your destiny
Shining down on Marillion

Red your eyes look for me
Scream the demon's choir

Don't believe you're a warrior
Search your soul for we're the same
Let me kick your mind insane

Give your services to me
Hell's my unholy abattoir

Burning feeds my buyers
Fire - Fire - Burning in fire - Fire - Hell fire
