Well I woke up one morning with a note up on my chest
It said I'm gone for good you're no longer with the best
I never dreamed there'd ever be another made for you
So I just went crazy there was nothing left to do

I used to be crazy over you
Nobody else could move me like you used to
I had to be out of my mind thinking I'd soon be over you

But I'm still crazy and I'm not over you

When the bad news finally hit me lord it hurt me to the bone
I was just a fool to think you could be just a little bit gone
But it would be easy it wouldn't be hard to forget
Little did I know that I hadn't seen nothing yet

I used to be crazy over you
Nobody else could move me like you used to
I had to be out of my mind thinking I'd soon be over you
But I'm still crazy and I'm not over you
Oh I'm still crazy and I'm not over you
Oh I'm still crazy and I'm not over you
Oh I'm still crazy and I'm not over you
