Time keeps dragging on, my life's moving on
Take your chances, roll the dice, pass only time
Well the phone won't ring and now I'm starting to fake
That maybe yes, maybe no
Maybe yes, maybe so

But there's not enough bottles to ease this pain
The sound of my dreams make me look insane
And what do you mean by reality

She's doing the things that make me know
Doing the things that help to show
Hard to tell me will I ever make you mine
More than anything, broken hearts can sing
Maybe yes, maybe no
Maybe yes or maybe so

But there's not enough bottles to ease this pain
The sound of my dreams make me look insane
And what do you mean by reality

Over and over, the story thought over
Everything you dreamed of never got older
Tossing and turning at night
Just tell me, how do you, how do you
How do you sleep at night

Take your chances on a million
Tell the truth and all of your lies
When you say it makes you happy
Well I'm sure it was a line
