Don't say that you do, when I know you don't
Don't say that you will, what I know you won't
It's too late for the hurt to go away,
I'm out of here, no matter what you say.
Don't say it's the first time, when I know it's not
Don't say that your sorry, just cause you got caught,
Cause I see her face in every lie,
And just in case you ever wonder why...

Think back on every word you said to me,
The tears and ever scar that you don't see
This time you don't get off so easily,
The things, I don't say,
Til today.

A trip to the ocean, would sure be nice.
Slow dance with a stranger, and I won't think twice
And if you don't know the reasons I'm gone,
Baby that will change, when you hear this song...

Think back on every word you said to me,
The tears and ever scar that you don't see
This time you don't get off so easily,
The things, I don't say...
Good bye, you know I kinda like that sound
So go find somewhere else to push around
I'm tired of givin in and loosing ground
The things, I don't say,
Til today.

I'm gonna turn around and walk [away]
Go on and get down on your knee [and pray]
You never let the truth get in [the way]
What I call lies you call mistakes,
Read my lips it's not okay...

Think back on every word you said to me,
The tears and ever scar that you don't see
It's time you let me go and set me free
The things, I don't say...
Good bye, you know I kinda like that sound
So go find somewhere else to push around

I'm tired of givin in and loosing ground
The things, I don't say,
Til today

Ooo today, yea yea yea.

Don't say that you do, when I know you don't
Don't say that you will, what I know you won't...
