So at Starbucks, met this agent, said she had an A List face
Just get some headshots, hit the pavement, and we'll talk about it at my place Then he came on strong, and then a double shot of latte

Lalalalala, it's L.A. baby, lalalalala land, lalalalala, It's L.A. baby
Better get it while you can LaLa land

My next door neighbour thinks he's pretty, always posing by the pool There's millions like him in this city, drives a Lexus but the rent's overdue
You can see him tending bar, parking cars on Sunset

Lalalalala, it's L.A. baby, lalalalala land, lalalalala, It's
Better get it while you can

I know someone, who knows someone, who is the one to know
I won't go down on Tinseltown, but I wonder just how far I'll go

Lalalalala, it's L.A. baby, lalalalala it's L.A. baby, you better get it while you can Get it while you can

It's collagen lips, hundred dollar tips, this is where it all begins

Lalalalala

I've got friends with clout, so just come on out, 'cause the party never ends
