(VÃ©ronique Sanson) adaptation anglaise Gary Osborne/Paul Vigrass

I didn't need nobody to tell me how love begins.
Nobody showed me the way to get close to him.
Needed nobody to show me how I should live.
Needed nobody to tell me how much to give to him, to him.

I needed no one to help me when he offered
happiness.
Oh, I think that I said yes, yes.
I needed no one to tell me what to say to his caress.
Oh, I think that I said yes, take a good guess, oh, oh,
oh, oh, oh.

Needed nobody to know how his arms would feel.
Needed nobody to show me a dream so real.
Needed nobody to help recognize his love.
Needed nobody, I found my own eyes enough for me,
for me.

I needed no one to help me when he offered
happiness.
Oh, I think that I said yes, yes.
I needed no one to tell me what to say to his caress.
Oh, I think that I said yes, take a good guess, oh, oh,
oh, oh, oh.

I didn't need nobody to tell me how love begins.
Nobody showed me the way to get close to him.
