Hello where are you
Hello what are you
I'll be seeing you one day
In flames far away
I wish you'd listen to my words
You'll have to learn
The ticket's only one way
Hello where are you
Hello who are you
Will we meet in joy
Wish we'd meet in Glory
Who will point the finger
At judgment
Will you curse my name
Will it seem the same
All souls are yes they are Eternal
As is pain
Goodbye where are you Goodbye what are we
you loved to hate
Hate was bait
my words I fear
Came to late
I'll cry over your tomb stone
