"Love Every Scar"

I fell in love every scar on her wrists
And sad eyes told a story of every Great thing that she'd missed
She doesn't call here anymore
She didn't even say goodbye
Just a kiss blown to
The wind we didn't catch in time

This can't be right the night has just begun
And I already feel like I'm dead
I know I shouldn't hate myself
I should be blaming this on you instead
Instead I'll rewind these weeks in my mind
And I don't think I'll find any comfort
In this coffin built for two

Love every scar a trophy that proves
How human we are love every scar
There's one for you, wherever you are

It's hard to believe that smile held a girl
That was hurt so badly it's hard to believe
That those hands that held our hearts
Hold the blade that cut you
And turned you into the girl it hurt to talk about
Cut you and turned you into the girl
We couldn't live without
And I realise this feeling gets stronger
if we wait any longer
I wish you had only let us in
