(C)

Pain enters into my soul, my flesh is torn and longin' to be made

Whole

Unfamiliar feelin's surfaced on unfamiliar grounds

Kills familiarity, longing to be made whole

Siftin' through dirt. The ashes darken skys

I am buried by my weaknesses, unforgivin' lies

(C)

Breathin' air for reasons unknown

Forgetful purpose all alone

Grasping for belief, foot steps to trace

Leading to home(?) Black Widow wievin lace

Cursed by sins of others, standin' in glue

Ever pullin' down, down, down, down!

(C)

(C)-> lay your head on withered pillow

Withered pillow will embrace

Don't forget it's love for you

Black widow wievin lace
