Well I know that no one is to blame
But do you feel my strength when you call my name
'Cause I feel yours inside
How could this be more right

And I have traveled through my mind
I've given all my dreams up to time
Tell me what else can I do
We'll I'm nothing without you

But you, you just don't know what to do
I guess I'll have to lose my love for you
These feelings cannot stay
'Cause I'm withering away

I'm withering away
Ooh, withering away

And teardrops are all that I can give
But do you really know what true love is
Don't let it slip away
This doesn't happen every day

And you'd have no problems without me
So take this song as my apology
But you have closed my eyes

And love's light shall never rise
Shall never rise on me
Shall never rise
It shall never rise

And I'm scared I'll never hold you again
But I know that no one is to blame
