Can we hide our secret love?
Each peek I sneak into your eyes when you look up
And all my troubles quickly thin just for awhile
And I dream, a quick dream, how romantic it'd be if I saved you.
On a dark, cold night I take you
And we dance by the fire.
Dimly lit for us.
And I sing, you to sleep.
I'd fall in love with you
And you'd fall madly too.
How can this be a fantasy?

We'll make our nest, in a lovely tree.
It would be, a lovely, peach tree.
I'll try so hard, to make you proud, of me
And you'd be my queen.
We'll make love til' the sun comes up.
So, peacefully
And we'd sleep, and we'd sleep
How romantic it'd be if I saved you.
On a dark, cold night I take you.
And we dance, by the fire
Dimly lit for us.
And I'd sing, you to sleep.
I fell in love with you
And you fell madly too.
How can this be a fantasy?
