Make the world new,
Things you dream to do,
With love from me to you:

Well I've had a thousand dreams, but never one like this
And I've felt a million things, but never felt quite, quite,
like this.
So tell me, what's your name?
And what's inside that heart of yours?
Tell me everything, just talk and I'll listen,
Just talk and I'll listen.

Come love, see the earth spin,
Watch the colors collide, with hope at our side,
All that is mine, with love from me to you.

Girl, tell me what's your dream, and I'll be there,
To serve your every need, yes, your every care,
All I have is this, and all I have I'll give.

Morning meets with songs, sung like I've never heard,
And all the smells, and sights, that bright my life,
Can't contain this joy unheard.
So tell me, what's your name?
And what's inside that heart of yours?
Tell me everything, just talk and I'll listen,
Just talk and I'll listen.

Come love, see the earth spin,
Watch the colors collide, with hope at our side,
All that is mine, with love from me to you.

Girl tell me what's your dream, and I'll be there,
To serve your every need, yes, your every care,
All I have is this, and all I have I'll give.

Make the world new.
Things you dream to do,
With love from me to you...

Just talk and I'll listen, talk and I'll listen:

Come love, see the earth spin,
Watch the colors collide, with hope at our side,
All that is mine, with love from me to you.

Girl, tell me what's your dream, and I'll be there,
To serve your every need, yes, your every care,
All I have is this, and all I have I'll give.

Girl, tell me what's your dream, talk and I'll listen,
Girl, tell me what's your dream
