You gotta wait
Not so fast
You gotta war
And wars are bad
You gotta chill down your back
You get out, you get out
Well look at that

All the pieces of your love
Fallin, fallin down

You can't be everybody's hero
You cannot always save the day
You can't be everybody's hero
Now that you're here
Don't walk away

You held the moon
In your hands
You felt the sun
In dessert lands
You are the Eagle in the sky
You get out, you get out
You don't know why

All the pieces of your heart
Fallin, fallin down

Let your eyes see again
let your smile shine again
Let your arms fly again
Let your hair blow again
Let your mind go again
Let your heart beat again
