Can I show you? (x6)

Come live with me and be my love,
And we will all the pleasures prove
The hills and valleys, dale and field,
And all the cracking mountains yield

There we will sit upon rocks,
And see the shepherds feed their flocks,
By shallow rivers to whose falls
Melodious birds sing madrigals.

A belt of straw and ivy buds,
With coral clasps and amber studs;
And if these pleasures may thee move,
Come live with me, and be my love.

Please.

Can I show you?
How I can love you better then ever,
then ever before.
I know you know me oh so well,
but they'll be changes sweet Michele,
so much more than words can tell,
can I show you?

A gown made of the finest wool
Which from our pretty lambs we pull;
Fair lined slippers for the cold,
With buckles of the purest gold;

And I will make thee beds of roses
And a thousand fragrant poises,
A cap of flowers, and a kirtle
Embroidered all with leaves of myrtle;

The shepherds's swains shall dance and sing
For thy delight each May morning:
If these delights thy mind may move,
Come live with me and be my love.

Please.

Can I show you?
How I can love you better then ever,
then ever before.
I know you know me oh so well,
but they'll be changes sweet Michele,
so much more than words can tell,
can I show you?

Please

Can I show you?
How I can love you better then ever,
then ever before.
I know you know me oh so well,
but they'll be changes sweet Michele,
so much more than words can tell (come live with me and be my love)
can I show you?
