I run and run a thousand miles and I am barely breathing
Only the fuel of a passion heart
Keeps this body strong and moving forward

Could it be I found a place to rest
How far until I'm ok?
Trees of the town reveal the time has come
Once again to shift are shade and colors

The world always changes around us but weakness will always remain
Through all the pain,
Believ'n, who we are right here and now

Raise one hand to the sky!
Raise them both!
Lift them high!
And you'll cut through the darkness,
Make it go!
The time to start is now!
And I can show you how!
Start with me and the world will be even bigger than ever before

The road that's gonna take me home tonight
Is just the same as always
Led by the brink up all the way
Of the flicker from the streetlamps fading

The town's falling down all around me
Yields to a breeze I felt before
And now im sure its blowing at my back and guiding me
In my heart will be where, I will lead this despair

Â'til the tears all dry up and finally stopped
No goal has been found!
But we're not turning around!
I'm tearing through that ol' wind and not slowing down!

Those bitter days are calling
For you and me to love
Do you not want to open?
No more strings and bonds that hold our dreams!

You can choose to go first, you can choose to go last.
Just as long as you move, you'll be okay!
And we'll still let you go!
And you can bet I know!

But where and how that is learnt 'til now is leading each step of the way!
Raise one hand to the sky! Raise them both! Lift them high!
And you'll cut through the darkness-make it go
