Crimson hands begin to rebuild dead life
Contusions begin before coagulation is complete
A fallen chapel gives essence to a reborn obituary
The only thing holding it together is some glue
And a couple pieces of broken glass

Run the paper track, when does this circle end
You may run, you may run
Cut the paper track, when does this circle end
You may run, but they hold the scissors

Crimson hands begin to rebuild dead life
Contusions begin before coagulation is complete
A fallen chapel gives essence to a reborn obituary

You may run, but they hold the scissors
You may run the paper track but they hold the scissors

You may run the paper track, but they hold the scissors
You may run, you may run, you may run

Run the paper track, run run
Cut the paper track, cut cut
