"One Wish"

If one wish was given to me then I'd wish for you to be here My heart is true as you can see and it's been true for all these years

If one dream was all I had I would only dream of you I don't care if the dream is bad
I know we can make it through

If I only had one voice
I would ask you to be mine
You are still my only choice someone give my love a sign

But I don't even have one wish so I almost drowned today Started with just one teardrop... the pain just would not go away

I can't even dream anymore and I'm starting to lose control My body continues to shake and I'm stuck deep inside this hole

I try hard to find my voice but I tripped and fell at first I struggle but can't make a sound and falling in love is now a curse
