Come here!
There's something awful deep in my chest
I know I shouldn't tell you but it's making a mess
And it's starting to hurt come and ease the pain Just be here for a second I'm sure you can keep me sane

Something awful is now taking over my life I would cut it out if I could maybe you should give me a knife Please come and tell me what you think is wrong Maybe you can fix it the pain's been here for so long

Open my chest and you'll see something really awful I already know what it is and I'm sure you do too Within my chest lies a totally broken heart And you're the one who slowly broke it apart

In my chest is something awful
A broken heart is something awful

Something awful
Pretty awful
This is something awful
