So you're stuck between a rock and a hard place

No room up above

Getting stepped on once too often

Now the push comes to shove

You got what it takes my friend

You'll be the winner in the end

Feels like you got the weight of the world

On your broken back

Take aim, you gotta give it a shot

Can't beat the heat when you attack

Don't lose your faith my friend

You'll be the winner in the end

Just remember

The bigger they are the harder they fall

Little man don't ever stop

The bigger they are the harder they fall

There's plenty of room at the top

Don't get no respect from the boss man

Says you're a big disgrace

Instead of getting a pat on the back

You get a slap in the face

You got what it takes my friend

You'll be the winner in the end

Just remember

The bigger they are the harder they fall

Little man don't ever stop

The bigger they are the harder they fall

You'll always find there's plenty of room at the top

Just remember

The bigger they are the harder they fall

Little man don't ever stop

The bigger they are the harder they fall

There's plenty of room at the top

Just remember

The bigger they are the harder they fall

Little man don't ever stop

The bigger they are the harder they fall

You'll always find there's plenty of room at the top
