Blind and shot this love unfolds
Is what you want, what you need, or would you even care
If I fell down a million stairs
Is what you want, what you need, or would you even
care

I'm losing blood I don't know why, my veins run dry
I'm losing blood no temperature, I can't endure

Sweep my dreams under the bed
Is what you want, what you need, or would you even
care
Sometimes life feels like your dead
Is what you want, what you need, or would you even
care

I'm losing blood I don't know why, my veins run dry
I'm losing blood no temperature, I can't endure

How much blood will you shed
Under the eyes of the sun, you drain my soul
Look in my heart it's an empty hole
Forgive Forget

I'm losing blood I don't know why, my veins run dry
I'm losing blood no temperature, I can't endure

Forgive Forget
