

Victory Within "Steal The Crown"

Visit "Steal The Crown" on MotoLyrics.com

You make my stomach sick
How you always throw a fit, when you don't get what you want
I finally figure out why you scream and shout
As you steal the crown once again

We can run away tonight
And fall apart from all the lies
Run away to cry and shed these tears from shallow
eyes

I won't come home tonight if your gonna start a fight
You think you can't be wrong
And I won't make amends if you cannot comprehend
Why can't you compromise tonight
We can die

We can run away tonight
And fall apart from all the lies
Run away to cry and shed these tears from shallow
eyes

Shattered lies are all we know
Doubting minds
Falling short
As life replays
You close the door

We can run away tonight
And fall apart from all the lies
Run away to cry and shed these tears from shallow
eyes
Shed these tears from shallow eyes
Shed these tears from shallow eyes
And shattered lies
