Each time you see your baby smile
Each time you hear that someone is a mother to be
The best things in life are free

Each time you hear a waterfall
Each time you see the sunset or the fruit on a tree
The best things in life are free

The world turns around and around
The moon moves the sea
I'm thinking of you my love
Getting closer to me

Each time you hear the songbird call
Each time you taste the honey from the home of a bee
The best things in life are free

Next time you take a breath of air
Remember people everywhere will agree
The best things in life are free

The world turns around and around
The moon moves the sea
I'm thinking of you my love
Getting closer to me

The world turns around and around
The moon moves the sea
I'm thinking of you my love
Getting closer to me

Each time you hear the songbird call
Each time you taste the honey from the home of a bee
The best things in life are free

Next time you take a breath of air
Remember people everywhere will agree
The best things in life are free

The world turns around and around
The moon moves the sea
I'm thinking of you my love

Getting closer to me

Each time you see your baby smile
Each time you hear that someone is a mother to be
The best things in life are free

Next time you take a breath of air
Remember people everywhere will agree
The best things in life are free
