The time has come
Tell me who has won
My head is spinning and it's only just begun
My minds under attack
I feel my soul fighting back
My blood is poison for the evil drowns the sun

What have I become
My mind the only one
The demon deep inside is trying to get out
Another pill, ah maybe it will, disappear
Will I survive, this blackened sunrise

My heart beats, there's nothing there
Waste your breath for my empty prayers
My head is spinning and I know the end is near
Another pill, ah maybe it will, disappear
Will I survive, this blackened sunrise
