I woke up from a noise on the outside
Hadn't heard it before
Jumped out of bed
Put my pants and my boots on
Stuck my head out the door

Chorus
Worlds crumbling down
And everyone's running around
What should I do
Maybe I won't make it through
But if I live tomorrow
I won't beg and borrow
I will do the best I can
But only for a while

I don't exactly know what was happening
My head was spinning around
And someone screamed
That the lord won't save you
Was he talking to me

Chorus

I may look crazy
But I'm really okay
I know just where I'm going
And I've been there before
Still I may not make it there
