Listen in realaudio
Yeah I gotta do something
Cause I've been down the drain
For way too long
Yeah I wanna be someone
More than the nothing
That I'm used to being

Living ain't easy
When you count on someone else
Sitting and wasting time
Till all you got is gone

Someone save me
I'm running out of life
Someone help me
I'm running out of life

I wanna live in the sunshine
Still I'm dreaming on
This worn out couch
Wanna have what is not mine
I can only look
But never touch

When you got nothing
In your life to keep you strong
But there is something out there
That to you belongs

Someone save me
I'm running out of life
Someone help me
I'm running out of life

And if you see me drowning in
The pool of broken dreams
Pull me out
And breath new life into me
