The moment I met you
That moment I forgot about everything I've been through
Tell me how could that be, hey baby
Guess we both know
I'd follow you wherever you go

Into the wild Serengeti
Hills of Himalaya
Back to where you met me
The moment when I met you, hey baby
Guess we both know
I'd follow you wherever you go

Back then
I was a boy longing for a friend
Someone to hold when the day would end
I had a dream 'bout the day when you, my love
Would come and turn things 'round
Now you and me like a brand new sound
Yeah you put me back on solid ground
And now my struggling days are gone, way gone

The moment I met you
That moment I forgot about everything I've been through
Tell me how could that be, hey baby
Guess we both know
I'd follow you wherever you go

Into the wild Serengeti
Hills of Himalaya
Back to where you met me
The moment when I met you, hey baby
Guess we both know
I'd follow you wherever you go

I've been
I miss you even if we never met
I want time on my own instead
I want time on my own but you, my love

You turn this world around
Into a place I never thought I'd find
Oh yeah I keep it in this song of mine
And now my struggling days are gone, way gone
Gone, way gone

The moment I met you
That moment I forgot about everything I've been through
Tell me how could that be, hey baby
Guess we both know
I'd follow you wherever you go

Into the wild Serengeti
Hills of Himalaya
Back to where you met me
The moment when I met you, hey baby
Guess we both know
I'd follow you wherever you go

The moment I met you

The moment I met you
That moment I forgot about everything I've been through
Tell me how could that be, hey baby
Guess we both know
I'd follow you wherever you go

Into the wild Serengeti
Hills of Himalaya
Back to where you met me
The moment when I met you, hey baby
Guess we both know
I'd follow you wherever you go
