Hmmm.. I don't wanna go anywhere and I guess I don't care who know all of our business , girl cause it's written on my face something wrong
how did we let things slip away
I don't know
got so many thins to say (ohh) why would I speak when you don't wanna hear
my heart does not believe

How we can be in love one second and then it's gone one day were allright our love is ???
??? and I think that alone is better than together yeahhhh

so much time invested in you I can't get it back , now what do I do maybe an apology would do I don't know
but it's a start

how did we go ??
how did we let things slip away to suffering, baby got so many thins to say (ohh girl)
why would I speak when you don't wanna hear
my heart does not believe

How we can be in love one second and then it's gone
one day were allright our love is ???
??? and I think that alone is better than together
How we can be in love one second and then it's gone one day were allright our love is ???
??? and I think that alone is better than together

how did we let things slip away how did it happen
got so many thins to say (ohh)

I wanna talk to you why would I speak when you don't wanna hear from my heart does not believe

How we can be in love one second and then it's gone one day were alright our love is ???
??? and I think that alone is better than together
How we can be in love one second and then it's gone one day were alright our love is ???
??? and I think that alone is better than together
