Na, na, na, na, na
I know better sit, I know better
You should better
I should be farther.. that I am
I discovered sin, I discovered
That my flesh and spirit don't like each other
I keep asking for forgiveness,
And I'm starting to sound like a record that is broken
Same sin again, gotta reverse the.
If I'm gonna win is that I know, I know,
The wholly road is looking a little different
But you know like I know
..can't worry about public sentiment, oh

Chorus:

When the both the surface
Because of our guess,
I just gotta do better (do better)
Turn from the wicked ways just to play all the games
Oh, I just gotta do better
Gotta know you any farther
Says you wanna get to me, I just gotta do better!
No more excuses!
All it matters is that I just gotta do better!

You know better you know better
You should be further than you are
What's holding you back from living
The way that you make
You keep asking for forgiveness
And you started to sound like a record that is broken
Same sin again, gotta reverse the
If you expect to win this battle.

I know, I know, that the..
They look at me a little different
You know like I know to grow
Can't worry about public sense!

Chorus: (x2)

When the both the surface

Because of our guess,
I just gotta do better (do better)
Turn from the wicked ways just to play all the games
Oh, I just gotta do better
Gotta know youâ€™ any farther
Says you wanna get to me, I just gotta do better!
No more excusesâ€™
The bottom line is I just gotta do better!
