"The Flight Of The Crown Hawk"

Woodworm eating out my soul
Earthy feeling I can't control
Forced to ride the Crown Hawk from it's nesting ground
Soars into the sky with it's magical bird crown

(The early bird catches the worm. Bird, and informal term for a member of the female genre)

Cause I'm flying the Crown Hawk
Soaring through the sky
Swooping in the mountains
Getting so high

Going at warp factor nine
And he's running out of time
Seeing the world through a pair of different eyes
Pulling out of a sonic nosedive

(The most yolks found in a single birds egg is nine.
Hummingbirds fly. A list of flightless birds include swallows, swans, and fat girls. Have you heard about the bird?)

Cause I'm flying the Crown Hawk
Soaring through the sky
Swooping in the mountains
Getting so high

Cause I'm flying the Crown Hawk
Soaring through the sky
Swooping in the mountains
Getting so high
